

The Karl Kraus Medal (est. 2010), sponsored by the German Society of Photogrammetry, Remote Sensing, and Geoinformation, the Austrian Society of Surveying and Geoinformation, and the Swiss Society of Photogrammetry, Image Analysis, and Remote Sensing, is awarded to authors of excellent textbooks in the fields of photogrammetry, remote sensing, and GIS, written in one of the official languages of the ISPRS, and published no more than eight years prior to the commencement of the ISPRS Congress at which the medal is to be presented. Nominations for the award should be sent to President Christian Heipke by 1st February 2020.

The Frederick J. Doyle Award (est. 2012) will be awarded to an individual who has made significant accomplishments in advancing the photogrammetry, remote sensing and spatial information sciences and technologies. A recipient of the award should typically be less than 50 years of age and have outstanding stature within the ISPRS community. The award consists of a silver medal and a monetary grant. Nominations for the award should be sent to President Christian Heipke by 1st February 2020.

The Giuseppe Inghilleri Award (est. 2012), sponsored by the Italian Society for Surveying and Photogrammetry, is presented to a person who has significantly enhanced the applications of photogrammetry, remote sensing or spatial information sciences in the four years preceding the Congress. The award consists of SFr. 2,500 and a certificate. Nominations should be submitted to President Christian Heipke by 1st February 2020.

The Jack Dangermond Award (est. 2020), sponsored by ESRI and MDPI, consists of a grand prize of USD 10,000, presented to the author(s) of the most outstanding paper published exclusively in the ISPRS International Journal of Geo-Information during the four years preceding each Congress, and three runner-up prizes of a journal subscription and certificate, presented to the author(s) of the best papers published in each of the other three years.
