

CALL FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS

Submission Deadline: 15th November 2023

Dear Colleagues,

The ISPRS Geospatial Week is a unique opportunity to meet highly distinguished scientists, practitioners, engineers, pioneers and leaders of space industry and agencies, photogrammetrists, remote sensing and spatial sciences experts together in a single platform to discuss recent research breakthroughs, technical advances, existing opportunities and emerging space technologies in these branches. Such platform will provide the participants with a diversity of cutting-edge topics in the field of Photogrammetry, Remote Sensing and spatial sciences through a combination of high standard workshops.

As you know, the next ISPRS Geospatial Week will be held in Dubai, UAE, from Feb. 17-21, 2025, hosted by Mohammed Bin Rashid Space Centre (MBRSC). On behalf of MBRSC, we would like to invite you to submit your workshop proposal to be a key role player in forming a constructive and unique technical program for the upcoming ISPRS Geospatial Week 2025. Join us today and be involved in one of the most fabulous and memorable events!

Best regards,

Saeed Al Mansoori
GSW 2025 Director
