

ISPRS Past President Christian Heipke receives Honorary Doctorate

Prof. Christian Heipke, ISPRS Past President and Director of the Institute of Photogrammetry and Geoinformatics at Leibniz Universität Hannover, Germany, was awarded an Honorary Doctorate from the University of Stuttgart, Germany, on 17 November 2023. This award was made in recognition of his services in the research fields of digital photogrammetry and remote sensing, his extraordinary voluntary commitment to the further development of organisations in these research fields on a national and international level and his close ties with the University of Stuttgart.

Prof. Wolfram Ressel, Rektor Uni Stuttgart 2023, Christian Heipke and Uwe Soergel, Director of the Institute for Photogrammetry und Geoinformatik (ifp) Uni Stuttgart

On 5 December 2024, he gave the ceremonial lecture in the main lecture hall of the University of Stuttgart.

Dean of the Faculty for Aerospace Engineering and Geodesy Prof. Stefanos Fasoulas, Christian Heipke and Uwe Soergel